TOWN IS IN SPLENDID FINANCIAL POSITION

The regular meeting of the town council on Monday night was presided over by Mayor Farmer, with Councillors Ferguson, Morgan, Hamilton, Beebe and McVeay in attendance.

The minutes of previous meeting were approved as read and a number of accounts passed for payment.

A communication was received from Mr. Frawley, solicitor for the department of attorney-general, stating in reply to the secretary's advice that the council refused the bonding company's offer of $1500 in settlement of claim covering Frank Wright shortage, that the said company would be asked to come through with the full amount of the bond ($2,000), plus costs, which in all would amount to $3,000 or more.

Upon motion, E. D. Battum was re-engaged as auditor, the appointment to be covered by law to be submitted at next regular meeting.

The secretary advised that the annual meeting of ratepayers would be held on Friday, January the 27th, at 8 p.m. at the school house.

The auditor's report covering the year 1927 was submitted and presented a very encouraging condition, showing cash on hand and in bank, after all obligations had been met, of the tidy sum of $25,986.26. Net profits from the water and light departments alone amounted to $4,876.16. Surplus of town assets over liabilities amounts to $65,600.73.

The complete report will appear in next Thursday's issue of The Enterprise and will be submitted to the meeting of ratepayers on Friday, January the 27th.

The "best game of the season" was our prophecy for the go between snappy. The locals emerged winners was the largest for the season.

Too Much ACID

Many people, two hours after eating, suffer indigestion as they call it. It is usually excess acid. Correct it with an alkali. The best way, the quick, harmless and efficient way, is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained for 50 years the standard with physicians. One spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in stomach acids, and at once. The symptoms disappear in five minutes.

You will never use cruder methods when you know this better method. And you will never suffer from excess acid when you prove out this easy relief. Please do it—for your own sake—now.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any druggist.

Jack kissed her again. "Forget him, Helmi," he said; "he is a poor, dirty, miserable old man, and he cuts no ice in our lives."

Helmi, who knew that weddings should be stately and dignified ceremonies, was deeply distressed. "Jack, I cannot feel that we are married by just those little no-good words; no prayers, no good wishes, no solemn words at all. It's a wicked way—I don't like it."

"I don't like it, either," Jack replied, "but it is legal."

"I'll tell you, Jack," she was recovering her good spirits now. "I know what we will do—we'll make it good. When we come to little pure—what you call creek—on the way home, we'll stand one on each side and say good words across the running water, and then we will be married sure. I will feel better then."

"All right, Finn—anything you may."

They stopped beside a little brook that found its way down to the river, following one of the flutings in the nature's edge. There, with the horses looking wonderingly on, they held each other's hands across the running water and pledged their vows.

"I take you, Helmi, to be my wife," said Jack, "and I will love you always." And Helmi said, "I take you, dear Jack Doran, for my man, forever."

And then, still holding each other's hands across the little stream, they repeated the words that Helmi had learned that night so long ago now at the Girl's Club.

"These are good words, Jack. I learned them in God's house. They are religious words that God understands. I'll say them first, then you."

"Clerical health; seek truth; know God; serve others."

Jack repeated the words after her, and then they kissed each other and stood silent for a moment. And for their witnesses, besides the angels in heaven, who surely were looking down, they had two honest bay horses that bore upon their shoulders the honorable scars of patient service.

Letter Tells of Wonderful Relief After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Coniston, Ontario.—"After a severe operation and a three weeks' recovery, I returned home so weak that I was unable to move a chair. For four months I was almost frantic with pains and suffering, and I thought there could not be any help for me. I had very severe pains in my left side and suffered agonizingly when I was not able to get up. My mother begged me to try your medicine. My husband got a bottle of Vegetable Compound at once and I took it. I started a second bottle, and to my surprise and joy the pains in my side left me completely, and I am able to do all my work without help. I am a farm wife, so you see I can't be idle long. In all, I have taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Five boxes of the Compound Tablets, two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier, and have used the Sarsaparilla Wash."—Mrs. L. LAURIE, Box 106, Coniston, Ontario.

him after they got to know each other better. Anyway, he was glad he had her here right beside him, and even if he never should know the truth he would trust her. Then he tried to turn his thoughts to the great secret he had to tell her.

She thought he was a common miner, and had married her, as such. Helmi, he knew, would be happy to live in this little house all her life with him. But better things awaited her. He tried to picture her surprise; and still he knew she would be anxious, too, when she heard he would have to leave her before long. That was the worst of it. Hang that old magistrate!

The wind began gently, in the mountain pass, coming in from the sea so far away, a soft spring wind, sent to forest out the last snowflakes hiding in river-bottoms and below trees—a sighing, singing wind, that went by the little house with gentle whisperings. But tonight Jack started at its voice, because it had something sinister in it. It was full of mischief—a sort of double meaning for all it was so spring-like and so velvet-footed. He could hear in it the cackle of evil tongues, searing and stabbing, behind doors, in corners.

Helmi knowing nothing of this, and having no sense of guilt or doubt, slept peacefully on.

They were married on Friday. On Sunday Jack told her his great secret. He had been on an exploration party the year before, on the Lind River, and had seen the gold in the sands, and knew there must be great deposits farther up. He had seen oil dripping into the river and running away, red and blue and green, and ones had put his hands in the drip and put the oil in a basin of the rock and cooled his supper on it. But his gold, it was the gold he was going to find. When he was in the city at Christmas time he had met a man whom he had often heard of in the North—a prospector who had been there fourteen years searching for gold, and now he had found it away up on the Nehalem River. He had found the motherlode, and had showed Jack specimens of the quartz with gold shining in it. Jack had seen it with his own eyes, and while he told her of it, his eyes gleamed with man's ancient lust for gold.

"That's our secret, Finn," he said, "aren't you glad? Oh, Helmi, there are sick doctors and diamond rings in this for you. I want my girl to have every good thing in life—English, education, poetry, music, fine pictures, all the lovely things her heart craves, yes, and a trip to Finland, and plenty of money for anything she wants to do with it."

Women Like To Sew

Two Thousand Women Tell Why They "Sew Their Own"

Throughout a recent questionnaire 2,000 women in thirty-two states have agreed upon one principal reason why they sew their own clothes, despite the fact that ready-made garments are so inexpensive and tight so precision.

"The chief reason," says Fara & Pireside, "is that women love to sew for the joy of sewing as well as for the satisfaction of saving a few extra dollars. Seventy-five per cent of the women added another reason, the fact, that they have by sewing they can put into better materials. Ninety-five per cent of the answers contained the recommendation that more stress should be put upon teaching girls to cut, fit and sew dress seams as early as possible in life. Scores of other women recounted the advantages of home sewing, but said that, regardless of saving or better materials, they loved sewing and would make their own clothes at any cost."

"The survey showed that nearly all of the 2,000 women make from six to ten kinds of garments, the biggest home saving being in pajamas and nightgowns. The obvious reason for this is the fact that fitting is the most difficult part of home sewing, largely as the result of not employing properly made patterns. It was also shown that a remarkably few women use their sewing machine attachment, the desire the great time saving that can be effected by their employment."

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Cannot Be Accounted For

No Reason Yet Found For Increase In Sudden Deaths

In glancing over the death notices in a recent issue many of our readers have been struck by the frequency with which the words "suddenly" occurs. In a column of twenty-five items headed "Deaths" the word "suddenly" is printed nine times. Whether or not others of the deaths reported were sudden we cannot say, but not improbably some of them not so described were. Only in some of the cases were the ages given of the persons who had died suddenly. Two of these the deceased were children, in one a young person of 31 years. So it is not only among the aged that life closes without previous illness. Nearly every day there are among the notices an impressive number carrying this word "suddenly."

This has no doubt come under the attention of all who are engaged in the practice of medicine and in the service of public health. These authorities may be able to account for the fact that so many deaths are sudden. It is unlikely they will tell us that this is at about the normal rate. They may point to conditions in our way of living or to the present-day prevalence of disease of the "grip" type as the explanation for what is evidently an increasing curve in the sudden-death line.

Work For the Scientists

Might Isolate Germ Which Makes People Live In Worthless Stocks

It is a pity that scientists have not already done something for the suckers of the country. Surely there is some way of curing the disease that makes people invest millions of dollars annually in worthless stocks and in other things promising big returns. The sucker must have a mental trouble or he would know that everything isn't exactly right when enormous returns are promised. He could reason that wealthy men are just as smart as he is and that if the investments were safe these wealthy men would take advantage of them. But he doesn't reason this out. He just invests, loses his money, and then goes to work to earn more to invest in something else.

The scientist should strive to isolate the sucker germ and find a means of destroying it. A cure for the sucker disease would keep many honest, hard-working men from giving away the fruits of their labor.

Story Of Famous Statue

Statue Of Venus Cost $50 and Nearly Three Months To Make

Venus de Milo, the world's most beautiful and absolutely priceless piece of sculpture, cost the French nation only $50 a century ago, but her preservation for the art world nearly caused a war.

This new story of the incomparable, armless goddess has just arrived in New York from Paris and is retold by the Women's Home Companion. The statue originally was dug up on the Greek island of Milo more than a century ago, so the story goes, and when the news filtered to the western world, English, Dutch and other foreign expeditions were rushed to the island to obtain the prized work of art. The French emissary arrived first, however, with orders to obtain the statue at any price.

The islanders did not want to sell Venus as they planned to send her as a gift to a Greek nobleman. The Frenchman coolly gave an ultimatum, however, that if the statue were not sold at once his country would send ships and troops to occupy the island. The Greeks capitulated and Venus was purchased for a sum equivalent to less than $50. The statue was transported at once to Paris, where it has since been viewed in the Louvre by art lovers from the entire world.

Find Old Flint Axes

Swedish Peddler's Trade Was Of Exquisite Shape and Workmanship

The 4,500-year-old stock in trade of a stone age peddler in flint axes has been found by some workmen in a gravel pit in the Swedish province of Soedermanland. The peddler's hoard consisted of a number of light gray flint axes of exquisite shape and workmanship, evidently hidden in the ground by the trader, who seems to have wandered a long way from the South of Sweden to barter his axes for the precious furs of the hunters of the Soedermanland forests.

The poor peddler seems to have met his death, for he never returned for his axes, that now are said to be the best find of its kind ever made in that part of Sweden. Almost every week new important discoveries of treasures hidden thousands of years ago, rune stones, grave mounds, and wall drawings, are reported from different parts of Sweden, the soil of which has turned out to be a vast treasure house for archaeologists.

No Interference In Irish Affairs

Retiring Governor-General Healy Has Good Word For English Government

Strong testimony of the non-interference by the British Government in Irish State affairs was given by Retiring Governor-General Healy at a banquet in his honor held in Dublin, at which President Cosgrave presided.

"The English Government, in my few years in office, has never interfered in the least with the title or a scintilla in any Irish matter," said the Governor-General.

"The British Government has left the military absolutely free; let them be left, uncoached and unadvised, and that tribute should not be left unpaid. I have heard much about 'our foreign King,' but there is one thing about 'this foreign King,' he is a gentleman and we know his pedigree, and we know as much about those who talk about his 'interference' in Irish affairs."

First Agricultural Pool

"The first recorded 'pool' in agricultural production," remarks the Scottish Farmer (Glasgow), "was Joseph's effort in Egypt, as set forth in Genesis xli. By his foresight in controlling the surpluses during the seven years of plenty, Joseph fed not only Egypt, but neighboring peoples during the seven years of famine."

Ready For Anything

A well-known pessimist of a western town had wrestled with dyspepsia for years. He stood in front of the post office as the noon whistles sounded. "Twelve o'clock, eh?" he said, half to himself and half to an acquaintance. "Well, I'm going home for dinner. If dinner isn't ready, I'm going to raise a ruckus; and if it is ready I ain't going to eat a bit!"

IS THERE A BABY IN YOUR HOME?

Is there a baby or young children in your home? If there is you should not be without a box of Baby's Own Tablets. Childhood ailments come quickly and means should always be at hand to promptly fight them. Baby's Own Tablets are the ideal home remedy. They regulate the bowels; sweeten the stomach; banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers—in fact they relieve all the minor ills of little ones. Concerning them Mrs. Mose Cabot, Makamuk, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets are the best remedy in the world for little ones. My baby suffered terribly from indigestion and vomiting, but the Tablets soon set her right and now she is in perfect health." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c. a box from "The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont."

The BABY

"No mother in this enlightened age would give her baby something she did not know was perfectly harmless, especially when a few drops of pure Castoria will right a baby's stomach and send almost any little ill, fretfulness and fever, too; it seems no time until everything is serene. That's the beauty of Castoria; its gentle influence seems just what is needed. It does all that castor oil might accomplish, without almost any of the strain. Without the evil after-effects of castor oil, it's delicious! Being purely vegetable, you can give it as often as there's a sign of colic, constipation, flatulency, or need to aid sound, natural sleep. Just one warbling note in the morning, Fletcher's Castoria that physicians recommend. Other preparations may be good, but no child of this writer's is going to test them! Besides, the book tells the care and feeding of babies, that comes with Fletcher's Castoria is worth its weight in gold."

RED CROSS SEEKS INFORMATION RE THE BLIND IN ALBERTA

A request has been received by this paper from the Red Cross Society, 408 Civic Building, Edmonton, that we obtain for them the names and postal addresses of all those in our district who have the misfortune to be blind.

The statistics thus obtained are for the use of the Society of the Blind, who hope to get in touch with all blind people in the province. We shall be very glad to co-operate with both the Red Cross and the Society for the Blind, and trust that our readers will make an effort to do their part also.

The Red Cross asks that anyone knowing the name of a blind man, woman or child living in Alberta (not ex-soldiers) should report the same to their headquarters at 408 Civic Building, Edmonton. Kindly assist the efforts of these societies by giving the matter your immediate attention, and it is hoped that all names and addresses will be written in a clear handwriting, preferably in printed letters.

IN THE SAME LIGHT

Sir Herbert Ames reports that there are five countries signatories to the League of Nations who have not paid their annual subscriptions. Shame on them! But we must not go too far in condemnation. We have several subscribers to The Enterprise who are in arrears and they might think we were hitting at them, although nothing could be farther from our mind. We mention the matter merely on account of the coincidence. It is rather strange that Peru, Nicaragua, Honduras, Bolivia and China should be in exactly the same position as some of our subscribers.

A teacher named Miss Ploggett gave her class a verse to write, and, passing Wilfred, saw on his slate the following: "A little mouse ran up the stairs to hear Miss Ploggett say her prayers."

She called him out to the front of the class, and, with cane in hand, said she would give him five minutes to complete the verse. Wilfred pondered awhile, and then wrote: "Here I stand before Miss Ploggett; she's going to strike, I'm going to dodge it."

CUT IN REPAIR COSTS — SOUGHT FOR MOTORISTS

Adoption of uniform methods that will enable motorists to obtain repairs and service at more economical rates is being undertaken by the service committee of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce in the U.S.A.

During the last few years an intensive study of repair-shop methods has been made by the service committee. Rapid improvements have been effected in shop machinery and shop management, which enable various repair jobs to be made in much less time than formerly, resulting in economies to the motorists without sacrifice of a fair profit to the service station.

BLAIRMORE, Jan. 14.—Threshing has commenced west and south of town at the Alfred Ellis place and O. Henker's. THE PASS FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

(The Blaimore Enterprise, 1913)
January 10.—The first meeting of the new 1913 town council was held on Monday night. The attendance at the meeting was so large that Mike Rose was obliged to sit on the mayor's tumbler. A communication was received from the C.P.R. stating their willingness to open a crossing at Ninth Avenue, in preference to Eighth or Twelfth Avenues. A motion was passed that H. C. Moore be notified that his services would no longer be required. Also, a similar notice was sought to unseat James R. Irwin as chief of police, but the motion was lost on the deciding vote being cast by Mayor Lyon. The salary of Secretary Shera was increased to $100 per month.

The Frank school reopened on Monday with Mr. H. Dexter McKay as principal and Misses Berry and McCallum as assistants.

January 17.—At the regular meeting of the town council on Monday night, it was decided to dispense with the office of town police, the secretary-treasurer to assume police duties where necessary. James R. Irwin was given a month's notice to quit.

The Murphy & Frayer Liquor Company will build a solid brick bonded warehouse at the corner of Ninth Avenue and Victoria Street, to cost in the neighborhood of $10,000.

According to the police report for the past year, as submitted to the meeting of the council on Monday night, sixty-eight cases under town by-laws were prosecuted, and fines to the amount of $637.50 were collected during the year. Other fees collected were: Licenses $1,637.50, poll taxes $628.50, dog taxes $419.00 and pound fees $1.00.

Benefit dance given in the Union Hall, Frank, on Monday night, was one of the biggest successes of the season, upwards of one hundred couples attending, in addition to which there was received a large sum from parties who bought tickets to help the cause but did not or could not attend.

The committee in charge desire to thank all who attended or who in any way lent a hand towards the success of the affair. Particularly would they thank the Upton Orchestra and Mrs. Altmann for free musical services rendered, and Mr. and Mrs. Kryvot, the genial proprietor of the hotel and his good wife, for the free use of their premises for the affair and varied other good turns done by them.

As a result, a very neat sum has been realized, which is being handed over to the Linn family.

Two bandits, Helge Schmidt and Thorkel Neilson, were found guilty of an attempt to hold up the Hillhurst branch of the Royal Bank of Canada at Calgary on September the 29th last, and were given sentences of five years each in Prince Albert penitentiary. Egner Reil, an accomplice, will serve two years less a day, in Lethbridge jail.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

The earth here is freshly blanketed with about a foot of snow.

Mrs. Jack Tustian and daughter Keitha are visiting friends in Brockton.

Mr. C. Frist, of Lundbreck, was a business visitor to Cowley on Saturday.

James Leigh was a Calgary business visitor the latter part of the week.

Miss Allison Brockwell has returned to Calgary, after paying her parents an extended visit.

George Christophers, of the Royal Bank staff here, spent Sunday with his parents in Blaimore.

Bradford Tustian is in town, having for several months been away in the employ of the C.P.R.

The annual Cowley school meeting was held on Saturday afternoon. George Ritson was re-elected to the board.

James Leigh and Willie McKay were business visitors to Granum on Tuesday. They made the trip by motor.

Mrs. M. A. Murphy and children made the trip to Blaimore and return on Sunday by motor, travelling under difficulties.

Mrs. Peel has returned home, after spending several days in Blaimore, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Peel and family.

The annual meeting of the Heath Creek school board was held on Saturday, when Mrs. N. Wycliffe was re-elected as chairman.

M. A. Murphy left on Tuesday night's train for Calgary, where he will be a business visitor for a few days. He will return on Saturday morning.

W. H. Moser journeyed from Pincher Creek to Cowley on Sunday morning, continuing on to Hillcrest in the afternoon, battling as he did against a drifting snowstorm.

We understand that Dick Graham, who has been in poor health for some time, has been ordered by a physician to go to a lower altitude for his health, and that he and his mother left for Victoria on Monday night.

The Heath Creek school house was burned to the ground on Friday night. The cause of the conflagration is unknown. A meeting of the board was called on Saturday, when plans were laid for the erecting of a new building. We understand that the building was covered by insurance.

A drifting snowstorm, which began here on Sunday morning, is still keeping up today, January the 16th, as strong as when it started. This will block traffic somewhat, as the roads by now will be almost impassable for motors, sleighing being the only means to relieve the congestion.

The regular meeting of the Mission Band, which was to have been held on Wednesday, but owing to severe weather conditions was postponed, was held in the United church on Friday afternoon, with a good attendance. Arrangements are being made to put on a play in the near future, the exact date not being set yet.

In spite of the snow storm, twelve children were present at the junior choir practice on Saturday afternoon. The youngsters take keen delight in learning the new songs which are being taught them by Mrs. Bouthiller and Mr. and Mrs. Griffith. A marked improvement is noticeable in the progress the children are making along this branch of art.

Dr. Hoyt, of Glasgow, Montana, was a guest of H. D. McMillan over the week end, arriving on Saturday and returning by train on Monday morning. Hugh Cameron, of Kimberley, was also a visitor of Mr. McMillan, stopping off on Sunday night and journeying on to Calgary on Monday, where he will attend the Word has been received from Ottawa that the fourteen members of the Junior First Aid Class, Blaimore, under the leadership of Mrs. Thomas Barnes, who were examined by Dr. J. Olivier on January the 4th, 1928, had successfully passed, the certificates to be forwarded in due course.

A Terrible Injustice

An old colored mammy, whose husband had just successfully sued for divorce, came slowly down the court-house steps, talking to herself:

"Dar ain't no justice in dis heah world. Dat useless of husband of mine he done got a divorce? He got de house. He got de money. Got mah fev chill'en, and dey ain't none of 'em his'n."

A soldier went to his colonel and asked for leave to go home to help his wife with her spring cleaning.

"I don't like to refuse you," said the colonel, "but I've just received a letter from your wife saying that you are of no use around the house."

The soldier saluted and turned to go. At the door he stopped, turned and remarked: "Colonel, there are two in this regiment who handle the truth loosely, and I'm one of them. I'm not married!"

PRIZE WON BY P.E.I. GIRL

In the competition for a Christmas card design, held by the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, the prize of one hundred dollars, given by the Chamberlain Chapter, Toronto, has been awarded to Miss Jennie W. Turner, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island.

The subject for the competition was a "Canadian Autumn Outdoor Scene," and many designs were submitted, which were both interesting and artistic and distinctively Canadian, so that it is felt that this competition is succeeding in its efforts to encourage Canadian artists in producing Canadian Christmas cards.

Shriners' meeting this week.

A temporary building has been moved on to the school site, and supplies are being rushed for the Heath Creek school, which will reopen on Monday. Only one week of school will have been missed, as the burning of the school house occurred on Friday night, January the 12th. Miss York, the teacher, has taught Grade IX, at the home of Michael Robinson this week.

A recital by Daisy Jackson, of Macleod (winner of the Cowley Women's Institute cup at the Blaimore musical festival), was staged in Tustian's hall on Friday night last, under the auspices of the Women's Institute. The programme was arranged as follows:

"The Burglar"—Lillian Bird.
Group of numbers by Miss Pauline Johnson, including "Canadian Born" and "Riders of the Plains."
"Unaccountability"—negro sketch.
Song by Mrs. Bundy.
"Pictures of Memory"—Alice Carey.

"Forest Fire"—Robertson.
Mrs. Clandel's curtain lecture.
Intermission: Dutch sketch by Mrs. Maltby.

"Mrs. Wiggs' Sunday School," from "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," by Mrs. Rice.

"The Prairie Heroine"—Robert Stead.

"Those Awful Children"—Selected.
"The Moo-Cow-Moo."
Piano solo by Miss Doris McEwen.
"The Merchant of Venice" (Act 4, trial scene)—Shakespeare.

"The Legend of Qu'apelle"—Pauline Johnson.

"God Save The King."

A good crowd turned out to hear this performance. Miss Jackson is a girl of fifteen years of age. She gave a very good recital for a girl of her age. The Women's Institute handed her $10 besides her e-penney and the L.O.O.F. gave another $2. Two recitations on the programme, which were enjoyed very much, were rendered by Mrs. Maltby, of Macleod.

Soon you will notice that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are of normal size. So penetrating and powerful is Emerald Oil that even files are quickly relieved. All druggists sell lots of it.

Grain Crops In 1928

The prediction has been made from many sources, and with but few reservations, if any, that the year 1928 gives promise of being one of the greatest years of development in Canada's history, marked by unprecedented activity in mining, manufacturing, building, water-power development, transportation, and a rising tide of immigration. Authorities in banking and finance are a unit in declaring that Canada is now in a position to take a giant step forward, and that apart from the financial ability and resources of Canada itself, both British and United States money will be available for sound development enterprises.

What of agriculture, the basic industry of Western Canada, and upon the prosperity of which much of the growth and prosperity of all Canadian industry depends?

It is generally recognized that agriculture occupies a stronger position today than it did a few years ago and that conditions have been steadily improving year by year. There is a feeling of hopefulness abroad that this situation will continue. But 1928 is to prove a successful year for our Western farmers. They must themselves take time by the forelock and lay the foundations of that success. It is now when the snow is on the ground and the temperature hovers around the zero point that the first step towards ensuring good crops in the fall of the year must be taken.

Later in the year everybody, and especially the farmers, will look anxiously for adequate rainfalls at the right season, for bright sunny days, for an absence of frosts, hail, rust and other blighting agencies, and for good weather for harvest and threshing. But a combination of all these favorable conditions will not in themselves assure the West a bumper crop. Something more is required, and now is the time to provide it. The conditions noted above are not within the power of man to determine, but, fortunately, it is in his power absolutely to provide the first essential requirement, namely, good, clean seed possessing a maximum of germinating qualities.

Unless the best of clean seed is sown, the best and cleanest crops cannot be obtained. If weed seeds are sown, weeds and not wheat, oats, or other saleable grain will result. This fact is so obvious that it would seem quite unnecessary to lay any stress upon it. But what is the situation?

All Western farmers can profit from the lessons learned from a seed drill survey conducted by the Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture last year. In 25 townships samples of grain were taken from the seed drills of the farmers and tested as to grade. Out of each ten samples submitted in wheat, three graded No. 1 or No. 2, four graded No. 3, and three graded rejected.

The oats being sown did not make as good a showing—16 per cent. graded No. 1 or No. 2, 16 per cent. graded No. 3, and 68 per cent. rejected. As in the case of wheat, the oats rejected were caused chiefly by the presence of noxious weeds. In other words, only three out of every ten farmers were sowing good, clean seed wheat, and only 16 out of every 100 farmers were sowing good, clean seed oats. Under such conditions, how can Western farmers expect to obtain large yields and a highly profitable return from their labor?

Ninety-seven per cent. of the farmers in these townships were using cleaning machinery of some kind, while 62 per cent. were using one or another of the recognized methods of treating grain for smut. It was established that the success, or non-success, in the operation of seed cleaning machines did not lie so much in the make of the machine used as it did in the man operating it. Another factor, of course, was the extent of the pollution of the seed stock. The moral is, that farmers should at this time overhaul their seed cleaning machines and make a close study of the best methods of operation. The importance is the obtaining of the cleanest possible seed to put through these machines.

There is a lot of truth in the claim of the Canadian Seed Trade Association that an investment too often overlooked in these days of mining and oil speculation, is the one of better seed. The assertion is made that one dollar invested in better seed during the spring should return at least six or seven dollars in the fall, and with right conditions and care it may return as high as ten or fifteen dollars.

Good, clean seed will not in itself assure a heavy and profitable crop—there are many other factors involved—but, unless good, clean seed is sown it is certain that such a crop can never be harvested. It is necessary to begin at the beginning, and the seed sown is the beginning, whether it be of a crop of hard wheat or noxious weeds.

What "Toc H" Means

Stands For "Tolbot House Which Commemorates Heroes Of Flanders Fields"

Probably nothing in the way of phrases is more widely known, and yet so little understood as "Toc H." A reader asks me to elucidate the mystery. It is described in one of its own publications as "Merely an affectionate diminutive the signaller's trick for saying 'T.H.' amid the noise of war." It stands for Tolbot House, a memorial "house that yow built" at Poperinghe, near Ypres, just 12 years ago, and commemorates young Gilbert Tolbot, son of the Bishop of Winchester, and all the flower of manhood of Allied camp who fell in Flanders Fields. The lamp of remembrance in Toc H. Chapel—all Hallows-by-the-Tower—is to be kept alight for all time to effect moral regeneration of the whole world.

Britain's Merchant Marine

Empire Owns Half Of Existing Tonnage Of World

No nation suffered at sea as we did during the war. Our merchant marine was always in the front of the fight on all the world's oceans, and its losses were correspondingly severe. It almost looked for a time as though the casualties it met with would force us to relinquish for whole generations our pre-eminence as the chief carriers of the world's trade. Yet less than ten years after the close of the war we won half the existing tonnage, and we are building over three-fifths of the new vessels.

OUR WINTER WEATHER

A Trying Time For People With Weak Watery Blood

Canadian winter weather is a trying time for debilitated, run-down people. The close air of shut-up houses, lack of out-of-door exercise, the restricted diet of the season, all have their effect on weak watery systems. There is always in such cases the danger of severe colds, attacks of influenza or the still more dreaded pneumonia. There is no other time of year, when a bountiful supply of red blood is so necessary, and the one way to keep the blood rich and pure and thus avoid winter trouble is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If, unfortunately, you have fallen a victim to influenza, or other winter troubles, this pink medicine will restore your health and strength. Among those who have proved the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Miss Margaret Pearson, R.R. No. 3, Chatham. Miss Pearson had passed through a severe attack of influenza and says: "It felt like so weak and run-down, that I could scarcely walk. Anemia set in and it almost seemed as if I would not pull through the winter, as I grew so weak that the least exertion would bring on fainting spells. I was under medical treatment, but it did not help me. Then one day in our local paper I read an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and decided to try them. By the time I had used three boxes I felt much better, and continuing the use of the pills it was not long before I felt better than I had been before the influenza attacked me. My rapid recovery surprised my friends, and when asked 'What did you do?' I would proudly say, 'Not trying Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.' To me, at least, the pills have been worth almost what is in gold."

As a precaution against winter influenza Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now sold by mail at 50c a box by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Burbank Gardens To Go

California Estate Will Be Cut Up With Building Lots

The experimental gardens of the late Luther Burbank at Santa Rosa, which for more than twenty years attracted "scientists" from all over the world, are to be cut up into building lots, Mrs. Burbank, widow of the plant wizard, announced.

Burbank died in April, 1926, and shortly thereafter a move was started to preserve his three acres of gardens and continue his experiments. All plans, however, failed.

About one-quarter of the land will be retained by Mrs. Burbank.

Buy's Ghost With Farm

A ghost was sold along with a farm at a recent auction sale at Kettering. It was the ghost of a woman, and she fetched $5,000—with the farm. She is the White Lady of the Falls of Harrington, whose ghostly career started during the reign of James I. In a fit of passion she killed one of the gardeners with a spade. Contrary to the usual custom among ghosts, it was she, and not her victim, who thereafter haunted the scene of the crime.

New York's Women Workers

Are Making Good In Lines Requiring Hard Manual Labor

One out of every three girls and women in the city of New York, twenty-four years of age, is engaged in gainful occupation, according to the reports of the United States Bureau of Census. The ratio of men working for salary or wages as compared to women so employed is considerably less than three to one. New York is truly a city of opportunity for the members of the "weaker sex," though judging from the work which some women are doing, the term "weaker sex" is a misnomer. There are in the city 694,777 females employed in offices, factories, shops and in almost every branch of work, financial, commercial and professional, which goes to make New York the metropolis of the world. About everything that a man does in the way of work, you will find a woman able and willing to do. In many lines, including some which require hard manual labor, women are giving the men a close run for their week's wages.

Value Of Crop

Annual Value Of Saskatchewan's Crop Placed At Four Hundred Million

"In the field crops of Saskatchewan we have two Flin-Fions annually," said Hon. C. M. Hamilton, minister of agriculture in the provincial government, speaking on the topic of agricultural development in the province to the Saskatoon Kiwanis club.

He told of having read in the newspaper that the estimated value of one acre of Flin-Fion Mining area had been placed at $200,000,000. While he was not attempting to minimize the value of other industries to Saskatchewan, Mr. Hamilton said, few people realized that the cash value of agriculture in Saskatchewan represented $400,000,000 annually to the people of the province.

The Family Physician.—The good doctor is worth his fee. But it is not always possible to get a doctor just when you want him. In such cases, common sense suggests the use of reliable home remedies, such as Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which is wonderfully effective in relieving rheumatism, neuralgia, and sprains. The presence of this remedy in the family medicine chest saves many a fee.

War Weapons Used

To Aid Humanity

Relief To Needy People

Another dream of the novelist has come true. Aeroplanes have been used in England to carry food to starving people in villages isolated by storms from ordinary communication with the outside world. The aviators were unable to find any landing-place, so the food was placed in bags and dropped by way of parachutes. The manifold uses to which the aeroplane can be put in time of peace are increasing in number everyday. It ought to be a tremendous satisfaction to those who have striven for years to perfect control of the air that their efforts are being utilized in the cause of humanity.

The past year has afforded many dramatic incidents similar to that recorded from England. The traditional and symbolic beating of swords into ploughshares is a more figure of speech compared to the literal and practical use of army tanks to crush a path through roads rendered impassable by snow and ice and carry relief to those in need. It would be a great day for the civilized world if all the army aeroplanes and all the army tanks of the Powers could be converted into mail carriers and road rollers.—Montreal Star.

Colie Has Own Method

A remarkable dog is owned by a farmer of Bajarg, Ayrshire. He is a black and white collie and answers to the name of "Laddie." Recently he was witness catching a rabbit, but he evidently was sensitive as to the spilling of blood and refused to worry the rabbit to death. Instead of that he hauled his captive to a barn, where he held his head under water till it was drowned. He has never, the farmer says, done other than drown his rabbits.

Biplane Built For

Experimental Purposes

New British Machine To Take "Soundings" Of Upper Air

A new biplane, specially designed for attaining high altitudes, is now at the Royal Aircraft Establishment, Farnborough, England. In this machine it is hoped to ascend to a great height and obtain "soundings" of the upper air. One theory to be tested is that, at 10 or 12 miles above the earth there are constantly moving currents of air travelling at 300 miles an hour and more. Such upper air tides as these might have a revolutionary influence on long-distance flying. The British machine which is to carry out this test is a Bristol biplane with an air-cooled Jupiter engine specially equipped for maintaining its power in rarified air.

It will probably be piloted by Flight-Lieutenant J. A. Gray, one of the most expert of the Government test pilots. For these high-altitude flights pilots are being provided with special air suits and helmets like those of diving suits, the air men peering out through small circular windows. In one new plane the airman will be enclosed in a glass-windscreen cabin, which will be automatically supplied with oxygen.

Five Eclipses This Year

Three Will Be Of Sun, and Two Of Moon

For those whose interests centre to some extent in the astronomical world, the new year will satisfy them in that five eclipses are scheduled. Three will be of the sun, and two of the moon, the new year bringing the same number as in 1927. On May 19 there will be a total eclipse of the sun but the powers that be say it will not be visible in Canada. June 3 a total eclipse of the moon is forecast which will be visible in some parts of the West. Two weeks later the sun will go into a partial eclipse and on November 12 the performance repeated. Western Canadians will have to take the word of the scientist for these because they will not be visible in the West. The last eclipse of the year will be on November 27 when the moon will be completely hidden. The eclipse will be visible throughout the North American continent.

The usual legal and national holidays will be on the program for the year with any additional ones the authorities might permit. To round off the twelve months the year 1928 is the 19th year of the reign of King George V. and the 42nd year of Confederation will commence on July 1.

MUCH INTEREST IN COMING SESSION OF PARLIAMENT

Ottawa—Questions which arise out of the recent Dominion provincial conference promise to have considerable predominance in the legislation of the impending session. It is hoped to bring in a bill to meet the views of the western provinces, especially for regulation of the sale of shares and generally to harmonize federal and provincial authority in respect of company incorporation, it was learned here.

Possibly there may be a bill respecting Alberta's resources, that is, if, before the session ends, a final judicial determination is reached in the judicial aspects of the autonomy bill. It is thought possible that Alberta may intervene in the case so that it may be taken before the Privy Council. That tribunal has demurred against hearing it because the Dominion Government, in its anxiety to have a final decision, has asked that it be really appealing from the Supreme Court judgment here sustaining its own contentions. This is unusual and the matter hangs fire.

Now that, on the lines previously indicated, the St. Lawrence advisory committee has reported, no doubt the Government will develop and announce, for the future, if not the immediate present, a policy in relation to this great national enterprise.

Great interest will attach to the budget whose importance, however, will be appraised in proportion to what it contains. Both in tariff and taxation changes considerable is expected. It is believed the subsidies temporarily given the provinces three years ago will be made permanent.

Other questions now under advisement, which were discussed at the conference, are the provincial requests for a continuance of the grants in aid of highways and for the promotion of technical education.

In a bill to amend the Parks Act the boundaries of parks in Alberta will be re-defined in the light of a recent survey. From the parks proper certain villages may be excluded, as well as the Pechoncha Valley, where there is coal.

Slayers Pay Penalty

Mrs. Ruth Snyder and Henry Judd Gray Die in Electric Chair
Singing Prison, Ossining, N.Y.—Mrs. Ruth Snyder died in the electric chair, muttering biblical quotations, and Henry Judd Gray followed her to death, seven minutes later, his lips moving in prayer but making no audible sound. The State had exacted its penalty for the murder of the woman's husband, Martin Luther Snyder.

Mrs. Snyder was led sobbing and shaken to the death chamber by two matrons who stayed with her until the end.

As she walked to the electric chair she cried out, "Forgive them, Father, for they know not what they do."

No Announcement

Ottawa—Premier Mackenzie King declined to make any announcement with respect to the report of the national advisory committee on St. Lawrence waterways. The Prime Minister stated merely that the report had been received. As the subjects treated in it were matters of international negotiation, it seems likely that no announcement will be forthcoming until Parliament meets.

Death Of Noted English Writer

Thomas Hardy, Dean of English Literature, Passes in 87th Year
Dorchester, Eng.—Thomas Hardy, aged dean of English literature, is dead at his home here after a month's illness.

The famous 87-year-old novelist had a chill December 12, and thereafter his condition was alternately hopeful and then critical, but his age imposed heavy odds against recovery.

With Hardy's death, one of the greatest of the Victorian, scenes of whose novels of English life were laid in his beloved Wessex where he lived most of his years, passed from the literary world.

Hardy died in surroundings which he would have chosen for his end. The historic country side of his home was to him the most loved of spots. More than 40 years ago the novelist planned and built a fine red brick and stone country house which has been his home and sanctuary ever since. It is in this home that he produced some of the greatest literature of modern times.

Involves Bg Revenue

Validity Of Alberta Coal Tax Is To Be Tested
Edmonton.—The validity of the provincial coal tax, which represents revenue of some $200,000 annually to the provincial treasury, is to be tested before the Supreme Court of Canada at the forthcoming Easter sitting, it was announced recently, and the Province is "ready" to go ahead with the case.

The case against the original defendants, the Caledonian Collieries, Limited, is to be proceeded with, in place of pushing the more recent action in which the C.P.R. was cited as defendant.

The question is one of the right of the province to collect a tax on every ton of coal mined in the province and the decision hinges on whether or not such tax is a direct or an indirect one. If it is held to be a direct tax, the province has the power to enforce collections; if the reverse, the province loses $200,000 per annum.

The United States, with 97,370 tons, dropped from fourth to eighth place during the quarter and is eclipsed by Germany, Italy, Holland, France, Sweden and Denmark, as well as by Great Britain.

Seeking Discipline System For Lawyers

Sir James Aikins Giving Whole Time
To Question
Toronto.—The problem of a Dominion-wide system of discipline for erring members of the legal profession became of immediate interest to Ontario with the arrival in the city of Sir James Aikins, a former lieutenant-governor and former chief justice of Manitoba.

The question is engaging the whole of Sir James' energies at the present time and is taking him on a tour of all the Canadian provinces. He conferred in Toronto with the benchers of the law society on the Ontario aspect of the proposal.

The question of discipline has been recognized by the legal profession for some time as one which should be faced but it has been left, for Sir James Aikins, since his retirement from the presidency of the Canadian Bar Association to endeavor to work it out.

At the present time the only penalty which can be evoked against a lawyer who is guilty of unprofessional conduct is to have him stricken from the roll of the Bar. This penalty is so drastic since it deprives the offender of his livelihood as to be rarely invoked.

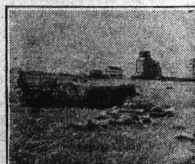

WOULD DISPOSE OF TWO ROADS IN PEACE RIVER

Montreal.—Possibilities of increased development in the Peace River District, and prospective prosperity to be derived by new settlers in that area, were pointed out by Hon. John E. Brownlee, K.C., Premier of Alberta, in an interview.

Frederic Brownlee explained he had come to Montreal for discussion on the Alberta railway question with Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National, and E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The provincial government operated two roads, the Edmonton-Dunvegan and British Columbia Railway, and the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway, both of which, in the Premier's opinion, should be incorporated in one of the two great trans-continental systems. He was prepared to discuss terms for the disposal of the two government-owned lines, being convinced both the province and the absorbing company will derive benefits from the amalgamation.

The Edmonton-Dunvegan and British Columbia Railway serves the Peace River district, which Mr. Brownlee explained was one of the most fertile portions of Alberta. The area was being opened up rapidly, and had a tremendous future as a grain producing country. In order that it might be developed to the greatest advantage, the provincial government thought the railway should be extended through one of the Rocky Mountain passes to obtain a direct outlet on the Pacific Coast for its products. As a provincially-owned concern, the Premier could not be undertaken by his government, as it would encroach on the territory of another province.

At the present time there were 500,000 acres under cultivation in the Peace River District, between eight and nine million bushels of wheat being harvested in 1927 from this area, and it was estimated 12,000,000 acres could be placed under cultivation in that domain.

World Grain Records Created by C.P.R.

World records in grain marketing during the peak of the movement were created this fall by the Canadian Pacific Railway. A recent statement issued by A. Hulton, General Superintendent of Transportation of the Company, shows that in the ten working days, from October 29-31, 40,474,000 bushels of grain were marketed.

November 24, saw the greatest single day's marketing with 5,109,000 bushels; and 2,366 cars loaded October 24. These figures have never been even closely approached in the history of transportation. The total amount of grain handled between August 1 to the end of navigation on the Great

Discuss Canadian Navy

London Paper Comments On Canadian Government Proposals
London.—Returning to its discussion of the Canadian Government's proposal to replace its two present destroyers, the Patriot and Patrician, with new ships, The Weekly Truth reprints a statement which is described as "officially inspired from Ottawa."

The statement says the first of the new ships will be laid down immediately the Canadian Parliament approves the necessary estimate. It adds that the Patriot is still serviceable, so the second destroyer will be ordered for later delivery, thus spreading the total outlay over two years.

The Weekly says: "A point to which the message makes no reference is that the Canadian Department of Defence has asked the British Government to loan two destroyers to replace the old ones, while the proposed vessels are under construction. I confess that if I were a Canadian I should ask, 'Why build warships at all as long as you can borrow them?'"

Wheat Exports Drop

Increase In Stocks Of Grain In Canada Is Shown
Fort William, Ont.—A decided decrease in the export demand for Canadian grain, with a consequent increase in the stocks all over the country, is reported by E. A. Ursell, statistician to the Board of Grain Commissioners.

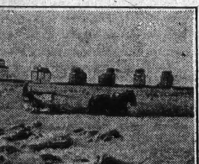

Export of the new Argentine crop is under way, and Mr. Ursell points out that this may account for the falling off of export demand for Canadian wheat.

World Grain Records Created by C.P.R.

Lakes were 172,619,000 bushels in 1926-27. It is estimated to the end of December approximately 190,000,000 bushels were moved over C.P.R. lines.

Growth of the export business via Vancouver in grain is shown by the fact that in the period mentioned above, 9,420 cars of grain were handled by the Canadian Pacific to that port against 7,398 cars in the same period of 1926. Similar growth is shown in the opposite end of the Dominion. In the winter months of 1926-27, there were moved 13,584,000 bushels through the port of West Strait against 10,751,000 bushels during the same period of 1926-27.

WORLD PEACE IS GREAT AIM OF BRITISH PEOPLE

Washington.—Senator Raoul Dandurand's words to the League of Nations Assembly in 1925 that "peace is the greatest of British interest," were quoted by Sir Esme Howard, British ambassador, in an address before the American Engineering Council here.

The Senator's statement that governments would all have to conform to the principle of peace or "their existence would be short-lived indeed," would be unhesitatingly endorsed by the vast majority of British people, Sir Esme said.

Referring to occasional criticism of Britain for holding back a little as at the time of the rejection, with full approval of the Dominion governments of the Geneva protocol for pacific settlement of international disputes, Sir Esme said Senator Dandurand had stated there had been a suggestion that the British were not in earnest in these great causes. Nothing could be more foolish and nothing more unjust.

Ambassador Howard concluded: "Believe me, gentlemen, there is no country in the world with which both from inclination and interest we desire peace, it is the United States of America."

FARMERS DISCUSS MANY PROBLEMS AT CONVENTION

Saskatoon.—Urging the provincial department of highways and municipal councils of the province to make provision for the keeping open to highways and main market roads for vehicular traffic during the winter, delegates to the 21st annual convention of the Agriculture Societies' Association passed a strong resolution on the subject of snowbound roads.

An animated discussion followed the introduction by F. Wright, Tisdale, of the resolution, and many ideas and experiences were advanced and recounted. The delegates all agreed on the principle of the resolution but there was some discussion as to whether or not secondary roads should receive the same consideration.

The weed menace in the province was another subject that gave opportunity for discussion and full advantage was taken by the delegates to canvass the problem. By resolution the convention recorded its approval of the short courses, to train inspectors, which are held by the department of agriculture of the province and urged municipalities to appoint efficient inspectors to aid in ridding the province of weeds.

The provincial department of agriculture will be asked to provide grants to agricultural societies for the purpose of encouraging boys' and girls' grain judging competitions, when held in connection with agricultural societies' activities. A resolution to this effect was introduced by J. D. McFarlane and Mrs. Eady of the Dominion Society and accepted unanimously by the delegates.

Grants will also be asked for societies to foster farm boys' camps held in connection with exhibitions.

A resolution was brought forward, having to do with the Wheat Pool and reading as follows: "Whereas the operation of the Wheat Pool has been of tremendous benefit to the farmers of the province, resulting in orderly marketing, and a greater proportion of the proceeds from the crop being returned to the producer which, in turn, has created a higher standard of living among the producers, resolved that this convention go on record as strongly supporting the said Wheat Pool and urge the desirability of giving every possible assistance to other co-operative marketing enterprises." The resolution was presented by F. Wright and J. E. McLarty, both of North Battleford, and carried amid applause.
